

Phlebotomy

Phlebotomists are trained individuals that are able to draw blood from a live person. During the course of this program you will learn the basic principles of venipuncture and lab procedures. We strive to provide the technical instruction and skill development to enable the students to become successful phlebotomists upon completion of the program. Our unique "hands on" learning experience allows our students to also obtain interpersonal skills essential for career success.

Schedule: Monday-Thursday 9:30 - 2:30 pm (Clinical times may vary depending on clinical demand.)

Program length: 146 hour program

Application deadline: August 6, 2021

Start date: September 1, 2021

You can obtain background check, & drug screen paperwork once tuition is paid and all requirements are met.

Tuition: $995 (payment accepted starting July 26, 2021)

Books: $85* *price is subject to change

Other fees (paid by student): $231 Criminal background check & drug screen forms are given once tuition is paid.

Completed immunizations required.

$25 - Basic Life Support CPR class

$110 - Certification Exam

$20 - Liability insurance

$32.93 - Graduation fee (optional)

*Prices are subject to change.

Financial aid: Financial aid (Pell/Lottery) is not available for this program, however you may check with your local American Job Center.

Acceptance: Students will be accepted on a first come first serve basis contingent upon completion of ALL checklist requirements.

Pre-requisites: High school diploma/GED; proof of medical insurance; proof of selective service registration (males); proof of US citizenship.

Proof of the following completed immunizations are required before enrolling:

- Varicella (chickenpox) - must show proof of 2 dates or varicella titer
- Hepatitis B series or Hepatitis titer - must show proof of 3 dates
- TB skin test & date - negative or positive (within the last year)
- Tetanus
- MMR (Measles, Mumps, & Rubella) - must show proof of 2 dates
- Flu shot (annual flu vaccine)

Your local health department should be able to administer these

TENNESSEE COLLEGE OF APPLIED TECHNOLOGY
PULASKI